SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of a Memo received from the Assistant Commissioner in Charge of Police, Shimoga, reporting on the occurrence of an infant marriage at Chickajambur in the Shikarpur Taluk on the 24th May 1897.

2. The Police enquiry shews that the parties are Holeyars by Caste, that a girl named Basvi, aged 1 year, 1 month and 7 days and daughter of Chennakka, was given in marriage to one Varsya alias Dyava — aged about 16 years and son of Danakáyu va Ramanna and that the marriage wa arranged and celebrated by the said Chennakka, Ramanna and Sivia, the — maternal uncle of the bride. The register of births shews that the girl was born o the 17th April 1896. The register of births Containing entry of the birth of the bride groom is reported to be not available, but he is certified by the Hospital Assi ant at Shikarpur to be about 15 or 16 years of age.

1. Danakáyuva Ramanna, father of the bridegroom.
2. Varsya, the bridegroom.
3. Chelumakka, mother of the bride.
4. Sivia, maternal uncle of the bride.

3. The Assistant Commissioner in charge of Police recommends the prose - cution of the marginally noted persons for an offence under Section 3 of Regulation

No. X of 1894, but as the age of the bridegroom is below the statutory limit, I beg that sanction may be accorded to prosecute the other 3 persons only. The vernacular records of the case are herewith forwarded for perusal and obliging return.

Memo.

One Kavalgadde Basava informed on 31-5-97 to the Police at Shikarpur Head station that his sister-in-law Chennakka celebrated on the 24th May 1897, the marriage of her infant daughter Basvi aged a year and half and that her father Danakayawa Ramanna assisted her in the performance of this marriage between the girl and his son Parsya.

Inspector Dasappa of Shikarpur Taluk inquired into the matter and reported the information to be true.

Holeyar Beera bin Chowda of Sunda village and Holeyar Kavali Guthya bin Basva deposed to say that while they went to Chickajambur to attend to some marriage they witnessed the marriage celebrated.

between Basavi, the girl and Parsya the son of Ramanna and the latter and one Siria, the maternal uncle of the girl took active part in it. Holeyar Doddaramanna corroborated the above statement and said that he also received presents in honor of the marriage. Holeyar Kabalimatt Siddappa said that he fixed the date for marriage and saw that it was performed that day. He acted as a Joisi in the performance of the ceremony.

The Patel showed the Register of births and deaths from which it was learnt that the child was born on the 17th April 1896. He said that the marriage was performed between the girl and Parsya (Dyava) the son of Ramanna.

D. Ramanna, his daughter Chennas and the bridegroom Parsya all said that the celebration of the marriage between the girl and Parsya was true and that they were not aware that it was against any law.

This was also corroborated by the statements of Rama bin Rama, a Coast of D. Ramanna, Holeyar Basava, Sivia maternal uncle of the infant. The latter seems to have acted as 'Kareyeradava' in place of her deceased father.

These men are of Holeyar Caste, the boy being about 16 or 18 years of age and the girl a year and a half.

From the above statements Dana Kayeva Ramanna, his son Parsya, daughter Chennakka and Sivia seem to be all prima facie deserving to be prosecuted

Hence submitted to the Inspector General of Police for favor of obtaining the sanction of the Government under Section 8 of the Regulation, for the prosecution of these individuals under Section 3 of Regulation 10 of the Infants Marriage Act.

The records in this case were sent for, I believe, on account of the inadequacy of the sentence imposed. The Dt. Magr's reasons are given in para 4 of his report.

The chief Court will probably notice this in the revision case before them.

May the records be returned to the Chief Court?
